

Part 5: Choose Who to Obey

Begin

Daniel 6:20-23

When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?” Daniel answered, “May the king live forever! My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, Your Majesty.” The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. And when Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

Reflect

- What is God revealing to you about Himself through this passage or this past week’s teaching?
- What action is God calling you to live out because of this passage and/or teaching?
- How can we, as a group, help you with the action God is calling you to?

Review

Obedience grows our faith. As we continue to believe that God is who He says He is, and we take steps to obey Him we continue to grow in our faith and trust in Him. We must continually shift our focus to God in every aspect of our lives.

- How has obedience to God helped you grow in your faith?
- What do you need to shift your focus from to focus in more on God?
- What are grateful of that God has done that can help you shift your focus onto Him?

PRAY

Take some time to pray for those you are gathered with. Along with prayer requests, pray that God will reveal to you the gratitude we have in Him and allow it to continue to shift our focus to Him.
