

Part 3: Present in the Fire

Begin

Daniel 3:25-28

He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods." Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!" So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire, and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them. Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who has sent his angel and rescued his servants! They trusted in him and defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.

Reflect

- What is God revealing to you about Himself through this passage or this past week's teaching?
- What action is God calling you to live out because of this passage and/or teaching?
- How can we, as a group, help you with the action God is calling you to?

Review

Who or what we anchor our faith will determine what our faith will withstand. If we anchor our faith to something or someone outside of God, it will crumble when we are tested or are faced with adversity. But as we anchor our faith to God and what He will do, we will discover that we are able to overcome any obstacle.

- What do you naturally anchor your faith to?
- How can you continue to make sure your faith anchor is established on God?
- How has your faith being anchored on God helped you overcome challenges in life?

PRAY

Take some time to pray for those you are gathered with. Along with prayer requests, pray that God will continue to help you anchor your faith on Him.
